To my grandmother Frances White, the birth of a child is a mother's greatest joy. The death of a child her greatest sorrow. I pray that the wounds of your heart will heal with God's grace. I've seen your pain in my dreams and cannot bear to see it in person. Please know that my heart is with you.

*Love,
Dee Dee*

“ Dear Family,

Words cannot adequately express our feelings of sorrow on hearing the death of our cousin Vernon. All of you are being held in our prayers and hearts. No one could ever replace vernon, He was a dear friend to all that know him.He was such an amazing man and a pleasure to be around. I remember all the time we spent talking at family reunions and and at my mother`s house on Wyalusing Ave in Philly.

We had so much fun together, and I was deeply in awe watching how much he loved his family. You are all in our deepest thoughts.Not knowing when someone is going to pass does not make it any easier when it happens. I know Vernon had been struggling with his health for months, and I know how very hard this time must be for all of you now. If I could soothe your pain with words of comfort and love I would try..Vernon will continue to touch and evoke laughter from us for years to come as we will remember him always.

Wishing you hope and peace during this difficult time.

God Bless You

From the Lane Family near and far.

“ Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God; Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Matthew 5:8,9. That's you baby brother and I have peace. I can't hold your hand or kiss your forehead right now but like you told me, I owe you one. I miss you so much but God is awesome and He is with us. You make being a big sister the best job ever. I love you.
