“ Joe was my great uncle and I'm going to truly miss him so much! He was my sweets partner, my buddy, and I could call him for anything! He'd always tell me "pray, and keep God first, thank God everyday" he'd tell me how much he loved me all the time. I love you Uncle Joe and I'm going to miss you tremendously! Thank you for all your encouragement over the years, and all the support. I appreciate you and I love you always! Until we meet again. -Myesha❤️ (your sweets partner)

Sending my sincere condolences to the family. I talked to Joe about a couple of months ago and he was so happy to be married. I was so happy for him. He was an amazing friend and coworker at NNSY. My heart is overwhelmed right now, but we all know, God makes no mistakes. He sees far beyond than what we can imagine. Joe will definitely be missed 😭, but absolutely never forgotten. God bless us all.

Joseph M. Saunders was my brother and best friend for over 50 years. We met as young electricians starting our careers in NNSY aboard the USS John F. Kennedy. Over the years he has been my best friend, my brother, my bodyguard, my rock. After retirement we were always in touch even after his relocation to Raleigh, NC. My family extends our greatest sympathies to his sister, brother-in-law, and all of his nieces and nephews and extended family. The loss of such a gentle, but strong willed giant breaks my heart. His legacy of being the nicest guy anyone could ever meet lives on...I love and miss you, Joe...Sharon D. Bynum-Blanco & Family
