

Joyce Latricia Clark-Copeland

August 30, 1952 - May 28, 2026

Joyce L. Clark-Copeland was born on August 30, 1952, in Tarboro, North Carolina. She entered into her heavenly home on Thursday, May 28, 2026. Joyce was raised in Portsmouth, Virginia, where she was educated in the Portsmouth Public School System and was a proud “Mighty Greyhound”.

She accepted Christ at an early age and has been a member of St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church for 28 years. Joyce was a faithful employee of the Portsmouth Social Security Administration for 43 years, where she was loved and adored by many of her co-workers, until she became ill. Sister Copeland served her church and community where she served proudly as a Relief Usher Ministry member and was a honorary member of the Truxton Chapter #63 OES PHA. She was also an avid Washington Redskin (Commander) Fan and loved to decorate and enjoy her garden of beautiful flowers.

Joyce was preceded in death by both parents: George Clark Sr., and Cloe Bell

Clark; two brothers:

Lemuel Clark and Rodney Clark; one niece: Shelethia Clark and three nephews: Anthony, Victor and Damien Clark.

Joyce is survived by her husband George Copeland, Sr.; two daughters: Felecia Clark and Denise

Clark; three grandsons: Lloyd, Travonte and Kenneth Clark; and two granddaughters: Latricia Clark and

Joyce Clinton; seven great grandchildren: Llakeeva Clark, Amaya Clark, Zariyah Clark, Shyhiem Cannon, Izaiah Clark, Kayden Clark, and True Clark: and one great, great granddaughter Syaire Cannon.

Also left to cherish her memory is one brother: George Clark, Jr., and two sisters: Queenie

Boykins and Sheila Clark Lewis; one niece Chantelle Clark and one nephew DeAngelo Clark, along with a host of family and special friends.
