

Joyce Jones Hoskie

January 4, 1948 - June 4, 2017

Joyce Lee Jones was born on January 4, 1948 in Portsmouth, Virginia, to the late Harry Lee Jones and Genevieve Jones. Her childhood was typical for her time, growing up on Manley Street, nurtured by loving parents, a devoted grandmother and a doting Aunt Audrey. She graduated from I.C. Norcom High School and attended Hampton University, formerly Hampton Institute. Head over heels in love, she later transferred to Norfolk State University to be with her high school sweetheart, James Richard Hoskie, whom she soon married. Joyce earned a BA Degree in Education and began her life as an educator, wife, and mother of two children, Richard and Michelle.

Joyce was an exceptional teacher who was repeatedly recognized for her work. After 36 years of devoted service, she retired from Portsmouth Public Schools in 2007. She was a unique individual with a variety of talents including cooking, sewing, flower arranging and decorating. Joyce had an entrepreneurial spirit that led her to sell anything from tee shirts to stuffed animals from the truck or on the side of the road. She had a thousand ideas and she was willing to discuss them with anyone who shared her enthusiasm. She was successful as “Sweetie the Clown” entertaining and painting little faces at children's parties. Her energy was boundless and her love for people was infectious.

Joyce brought that same energy to Third Baptist. She worked on various committees and projects including the after-school tutorial program, focusing on students who were having difficulty with math, Seeing a need to engage more youth, Joyce created the church's first Praise Dance Team. She scheduled practices, designed and sewed the dance attire, provided transportation, and set up workshops with neighboring churches. Liturgical dance was just coming into vogue and Joyce saw to it that Third Baptist was included in the trend.

In March 2011, a debilitating illness interrupted the life style of Joyce Jones Hoskie, but did little to destroy her spirit. From her bed, she was still interested in the welfare of her family and friends. She thoroughly enjoyed having visitors whom she questioned about everything from the weather to the latest gossip. Her beloved Richard unselfishly cared for her night and day until he suddenly passed away in 2015.

Left to cherish her memory are her loving mother, Mrs. Genevieve Jones; an attentive daughter and caregiver, Michelle, a loving son, Richard; three siblings: Joseph Edgerton, Harold Jones and Kimberly Jones; three grandchildren, Alexia Moore, Jaman Hoskie, and India Hoskie; one great-grandchild, Aaleigha Moore, cousins, nieces, nephews and many, many friends.

“ I was so sad to hear of Joyce's passing. Her beautiful smile, caring nature, and sweetness will always be remembered. I witnessed many times when she would go out of her way to be sure others were comfortable and happy. She was truly special and an excellent teacher who was loved by her students, her administrators, parents, and co-workers. May God bring peace to her family that will take them through this time of bereavement.

“Joyce was a very special lady. When she was in Portsmouth General hospital years ago I was a volunteer. I went by one day and sung to her. After that day whenever I was there she asked that I come in and sing to her. She told me later that I assisted in her getting better. Whenever she saw me she always shared that and thanked me for being there for her. I shall never forget her! She was a beautiful lady inside and out!! God has another Angel in heaven!!

“I met Joyce in 1964 while a 6th grade student in her mother's class. I believed in my mind, that I was going to be the baby when she went off to college. But that did not happen....then came BIG HEADED HARRELL. He was adored by us all and I became a permanent member of the family. May the Spirit of God encompass your Spirits as you mourn the loss of your daughter, sister, mother and friend. We shall meet again!

“ Joyce and I began our friendship at EBENEZER BAPTIST CHURCH, as; young children growing up. We sang in the "Angelic Choir" together where the Church's First GOSPEL Album was recorded.

My Condolences, and Prayers are given to the Family...Mrs. Jones, Harold, Kim and Joyce's Children.

My heart is saddened. 1st Thess. 4:13, 18

Concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. Wherefore Comfort one another with these Words. GOD created a BEAUTIFUL person; "Joyce", who LOVED Him and SERVED Him, FAITHFULLY!

"FAMILY.... WEEP NOT, WEEP NOT, SHE'S NOT DEAD!.... SHE'S RESTING IN THE BOSOM OF JESUS".

IN HIS NAME, 🙏

I was sorry to learn of the passing of Joyce. She and I grew up in Ebenezer Baptist Church. Not only a teacher, Joyce was a jack of many trades. She really enjoyed creating greeting cards and floral arrangements. I still have a beautiful floral arrangement she did for me over twenty years ago. It will always be my reminder of her sweet gentle spirit. She is now being the heavenly clown for children in heaven . This too was a talent she enjoyed. Children she touched while teaching will miss her as well.

Rest on Joyce until we meet again.

Love,

*Your Childhood Ebenezer Baptist Church Friend,

I had the pleasure of meeting Ms. Hoskie when we worked together at Cradock Middle School during summer school. We communicated as if we had known each other for years. She had a sweet spirit, an infectious smile and was a joy to be around. To the family, please accept my deepest condolences. May God be with you'll until you meet again...
