“ My deepest condolences to the family. Joyce was a wonderful person. She had such an uplifting spirit and was full of fun and love. I had the pleasure of working with her and from the day that I met her I knew I wanted to know her for the rest of my days. I carry nothing but memories full of laughter from my time spent with Joyce. I love her and I will miss her dearly! May her spirit live on through the laughs of her family and all those that she touched in this world. Until we meet again--I love you "Boss."###imported-begin###Wanda Copping###imported-end###

“ To the Hubbard Family: My deepest condolences on your loss. I had known Joyce for many years though we had lost touch the past few, this is a great loss not only to you but to the world as well. Joyce was always the smiling face and person I could sit down and talk to while we worked together at Great Atlantic. Please enjoy the memories you have of her and cherish them forever, I know I will.

God Bless, Mike Heath and Family###imported-begin###Mike Heath###imported-end##

“ To the Hope/Hubbard Family, sorry about the loss of your dear Joyce. I will forever remember her smile and the fun we had @ Lake Taylor High School. Please continue to draw close to Jehovah God for strength-Ps 55:22. We all can look forward to the hope of a resurrection promised by Jesus at John 5:28, 29. Until then, hold on to all those wonder memories.###imported-begin###Michele Taylor Wilson###imported-end##

“ August 1, 2011

*Dear Family and Friends of Mrs. Joyce Hubbard,
We were looking through the newspaper and saw the picture of Mrs. Joyce. She was a beautiful woman. Our names are Jaylen and Jarrod. We are 12 years old, and we have learned from the Bible that according to Job 14:15,15, if someone dies they can live again. Another Scripture from the Bible is John 5:28,29, which tells us that the dead will rise again. Ms. Joyce was a little younger than your mother and we can only imagine how it would feel if we lost our mom in death. We know that we cannot change what happened, but we know who can and will.*

Throughout the Gospel accounts, there are many miracles of Jesus, including a resurrection on the earth. For example, in Luke 7:11-17, there was a resurrection of a widow's only son.

The miracles recorded in the Gospels show what will take place in God's Kingdom, which we pray for in Matthew 6:9. There, we ask God for his will to be done on earth as it is in heaven. Please read Revelation 21:3,4, because you will see that during that time, "death will be no more." These Scriptures helped us when we lost someone we love. We hope these words will help you too. We are Jehovah's Witnesses, and we hope that if you ever meet one of us, you will talk to us.

Sincerely,

Jarrod and Jaylen Basnight
