“ *Hello Family,
I'm truly sorry to hear about your Mom's passing. Juanita always kept in touch with me during our Dad's illness and they would talk for atleast an hour when they spoke. No matter how bad he was feeling he would always welcome her calls. I pray for strength for each of you during your bereavement. She will truly be missed. She is gone but never forgotten. Love you all!*

“ My Sincere Prayers, Heart Felt Sympathy and Love to my Family

Randy Artis - May 16, 2016 at 05:45 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is truly an enemy as the Bible states at 1Corinthian 15:26. When we lose a loved one to death, you will be confronted with a number of overwhelming emotions. These words of deepest sympathy are sent with the hope that, as time goes by, cherished memories will help bring you inner peace and make your loved one still seem very close to you. It may be painful at first, but, it will get easier. Most importantly pray to Jehovah. The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Pour out your heart to Jehovah. He will listen and give you the strength needed to cope with this time of sadness.
