

Julia Ann Roberts

October 1, 1925 - September 1, 2020

Age 94, On Tuesday September 1, 2020 the Lord called one of his Angels home. Julia Roberts was born in Lagrange, NC, on October 23, 1922 to Irene and Saul Hardy. She was predeceased by her husband of 61 years to Charlie Roberts and their son James Roberts. She was a resident at Autumn Care of Portsmouth. She loved the Lord. She was a faithful member of New Mount Olivet Baptist Church for over 55 years. She served on several boards there. Surviving to cherish her memory are her 4 children Ella, Julia, Charlie Jr. and Annie Roberts. She also leaves behind 9 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren and 7 great-great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends. The visitation will be held on wednesday beginning 4 p.m. until 7 p.m. The life celebration service will be held at 1 p.m. on Thursday also at J.T. Fisher Funeral Services. Condolences may be offered to the family at: www.JTFisherfuneralservices.com.

“ I am a long time volunteer at Autumn Care and I loved to visit Miss Julia and her roommates. She would always be cheerful and gracious even as her health failed. I especially loved her singing and promise to pray for me and my family. Remember, "Nobody does it like Jesus." She is home now with the Lord she loved so much . She will be remembered and missed. “ My Julia was a joy and worshiper; she gave her testimony all the time of "Can't Nobody Do Jesus and So Glad I'm Here in Jesus Name". She told it every where she went; I will truly miss her. I will keep her family in prayer.
