“ Sorry this is late, I was not able to find out what happened after seeing him leave. I spoke to him and never saw him again. I moved into the house across the street from Kalle 3 years ago and while I was rebuilding my gate he came across the street to ask if I needed help. It was one of the nicest things anyone has ever offered me. He regaled me with a story about picking fights with Navy SEALs in VB when he was younger. I think I missed out on most of his life, but not the best of him. RIP my friend!

“ With the Strength of a Lion, the Handsomeness of James Bond, and the Heart of Robin Hood, your jovial heart truly cared more than you would show. One to give a shirt off his back for another in need. Always wishing to see the best in others. You shared your heart until its strength was too weakened.

How blessed am I to have you as my daddy! Never once did I ever feel unloved. You always provided me with the utmost emotional encouragement and protection! I love your spirit heart and soul always and forever! You will truly be missed. Spiritually gifted we will always share that special connection. I know you will continue watching over me in your grandbabies.

The best gift of your remembrance is for friends and family to carry an open heart. Go cast a fishing line and carry out the good company!

It is time for me to gain your respect!

Love Daddy's Little Princess always and forever!

“ I met Kalle in 1986 when he came into Hershey Bar @ 5 points. He walks in with Judy Goldberg and Bobby Lewis. Massive huge all muscle. We instantly became friends. 5 foot woman doing pull up on his arms.
My heart is saddened about his death. I couldn't even believe it. Words will never describe what I feel. Love you my brother/never forget. Rest in peace DUSTY

RIP my sweet brother in law, met Kalle ,April of 1981 in Avon NC, he was there to help his brother to build a log cabin, little did I know, he would be my brother in law a year later, miss talking to you on the phone and having you come over for breakfast and dinner, my beef soup was your favorite. RIP my sweet brother in law , you are now in heaven looking down from above with your parents. ... Love ya Bonnie
