“ My locker was beside Darryl Grant's locker all four years in high school so I saw Karlton and George daily...they were all good guys...you could tell that they were tight and respected each other...there was always laughter when they were all together...and yes, I can remember hearing Karlton's laugh...lol...RIP Karlton...my condolences to your family...

“ No matter how much time goes by, it's never easy to hear that someone you have cherished memories of is gone. But, Karlton, you aren't "gone". You will remain in the hearts of those who hold special memories of you, including me. To the family and those who loved Karlton as family, I send my deepest condolences to you all. Rest in Heavenly Peace, Karlton.

“ My sincerest condolences to the Elliott family. I met Karlton(Goat) through my best friends Darryl Grant (Ratman) & George Branch (Booker) and it was never a dull moment. I can just hear your crazy laughter in my head. My prayer is that God will give the family the peace that surpasses all understanding during this time. Much Love, Stacey Crawford and Family

“Wow! I'm just lost for words. I've been knowing Karlton & his beautiful mother Ms. Joyce from Celestial Baptist church back in the day. So he grew up with me practically. So my prayers are with the entire Elliott family at this difficult time. Just know Ms. Joyce that he's watching over u & his closest friends Daryl (Ratman,) & my cuzn George Branch (Booker) & he's not in anymore pain. May God comfort ur hearts & give u all the extra added strength that u will need now & days to come. Take ur rest bro. Karlton til we meet again tell my cuzn Daria Forbes I said I'm missing her like crazy. Luv ur sis. Sebrena & Mother Elsie Grant Murphy 🙏🙏🙏
