

Katrina Govan Toussant

March 8, 1965 - July 17, 2025

On July 17, 2025, our beloved Katrina Toussant was called home to be with the Lord after a courageous seven-year battle with her health. Born on March 8, 1965, in Portsmouth, Virginia, Katrina was the cherished daughter of Ann and Edward Cunningham.

Katrina graduated from Cradock High School in 1983, where she proudly played clarinet in the school's marching band. She later attended Norfolk State University, pursuing a degree in Social Work—driven by a deep passion for teaching, supporting, and uplifting others.

In 1994, Katrina welcomed her first daughter, Toria Sanchez, and in 1997, she married the love of her life, Lance Toussant. Their union was later blessed with the birth of their second daughter, Barbara Toussant, in 2000.

Katrina was a woman of many talents and passions. She found joy and inspiration in music, cooking, art, cars, and the beauty of nature. A vibrant and multifaceted soul, Katrina touched many lives through her knowledge, creativity, and unshakable faith. She will be remembered not only for her strength and compassion but for the light she brought into every space she entered.

Katrina leaves behind her devoted husband, Lance Toussant; her loving daughters, Toria and Barbara; her son-in-law, Enoch; and her grandson 'Little Enoch'; and a host of extended family members and dear friends who will continue to honor her legacy with love and remembrance.

Thanks for taking care of all the personnel of Juvenile Services for the city of Norfolk. You were amazing. A truly example of providing public services.
