“ Uncle Chip, gone to soon. You have been a gear great support in the lives of Monique and I. Monique enjoyed the summers spent with you. When I got my first apartment at 18 you came to Connecticut and bought me housewarming gifts. No matter where we lived, you always took the time to visit us and make sure we were okay. You are loved, and missed, and will forever be in our memory. I wrote this for you....
Please don't cry for me tears of sorrow,
Here today gone tomorrow, I have no pain, no more physical stress, now I look forward to heavenly happiness, I've served my country, I've been a good man, a Brother, a Father, a Uncle, and a Husband, all part of God's plan. Now I'm home where I belong, remember I love u dearly, family and friends..
In my memory please be strong..

“ Chip, a wonderful person and a great man! In the past week I've played the short time we spent together. Your smooth comments about life in 1982, your guidance as I followed your foot steps and joined the Army in 1984, your warm hospitality in 1995, and your direction as you showed me the ropes in Kuwait in 2005. Each encounter was too short, but so important to my life. I'll miss you how easily you made me laugh. Thank you so very much for my birthday wish on New Years Day 2012. I'll miss you so much, but I know you're in a better place and just like before I'll follow your lead.##imported-begin##Dwayne Bruce##imported-end##
