

Kenneth Anthony Brown

March 21, 1943 - July 11, 2025

Kenneth A. Brown, a proud U.S. Army veteran and devoted family man, passed away peacefully. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Marlyn B. Brown; cherished grandson, Gregory A. Pierce I; loving daughter, Minister Claudine Mitchell; and dear sister and brother-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. John and Dorothy Garland.

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania—on the Shadyside of the city—Kenneth graduated with a strong desire to serve his country. While working as a nurse at the Pittsburgh Veterans Administration, he met the love of his life, Marlyn. They married in 1983 and built a beautiful life together, raising four children: Claudine, Robert, Kevin, and Janine.

Kenneth served over 33 years in the United States Army with honor and distinction. He took great pride in his military service and appearance, famously polishing his boots to a mirror shine. A true Pittsburgh native, he was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan, he cherished motorcycle riding through the hills of the suburbs and took meticulous care of his bright orange and black Datsun, which he kept spotless.

A dedicated family man, Kenneth found joy in traveling, entertaining, and creating meaningful memories with his loved ones. He and his wife shared a love for bowling and competed together on several leagues, gaining a reputation for their spirited teamwork.

Kenneth especially adored his grandchildren and made it a priority to spend quality time with them, taking them to monster truck shows, airshows, and other exciting adventures. A man of few words and deep faith, he was a devoted member of Mount Chesapeake and lived a life of love, service, and unwavering commitment to his family.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted daughter, Dr. Marlyn J. Pierce, and son-in-love, Gregory A. Pierce; devoted son, Robert K. Jefferson; son, Kevin Brooks; six grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; and a host of loving relatives and friends.

Kenneth A. Brown will be remembered for his quiet strength, compassionate heart, and the many lives he touched.
