DK

“Kenny & I met through work and became fast friends... he had a smile that would brighten up any day and always had a kind word and uplifting spirit. We'd chat about family and he'd always ask how my 3 daughters were getting along in college and with their careers. He celebrated with excitement when I became engaged; with Mark and his son being added to our conversations as well. When Mark and I set our Wedding date we knew we wanted to be surrounded by family and close friends, and what an honor it was to have a man with whom I knew keep my daughters, Mark, and I lifted in prayer, a man who had become such an inspiration to me in his walk with Christ, a man I called my dear friend, a man who had become a part of my life story by joining Mark and I in marriage, and one I will truly miss... a man "my dear friend Kenny" who will be waiting to welcome me with open arms when I too enter into the Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
