“ Love you Kerry and it's so many memories to share so I will continue to cherish them always within my heart... However my most precious memory is of the birth of our beautiful daughter Kerri Leigh-Anne White... You being super excited when she was born and the happiness in your eyes when you first held her... She is 14 years old now and looking just like you!! I promise she will be alright and we are gonna take great care of her. I will always remind her of you! Her loving and caring dad who always set her straight, protected her, and wanted everything to be the best for her... Forever you will be missed... With Love Nikki ❤️
