“ To Kevin's family and friends,
We lived in Whispering Oaks and we remember Kevin always having a smile whenever we saw him. We would always wave to each other in passing. He was such a nice and friendly young man and he will truly be missed. Be encouraged and know that God is with you, even in the midst of this rough time in your lives. He is here and His spirit will comfort you and give you the strength that you need. We will keep you in our prayers. You will get through this.##imported-begin##Anthony and Candi Cherry##imported-end##

“ To loving family of kevin, no words can describe the loss that I feel because of knowing him as the little boy that use to come to the Washington Park Recreation. I call him Quiet Kevin . Always willing to help. Thank you for allowing me to work with and watch him grow up to become the young man any mother would want to have a son. mother be blessed and know that God has him right next to him and he is smiling down on all of us. With his quiet tones, saying momma I'm ok. and I love you all. God heals miss yvonne. WP###imported-begin##miss yvonne###imported-end##

“ To the family...

May God be with all of you during this difficult time and may he give you the strength to carry on.

If I can leave you with a scripture that has comforted my family in times like these, it is...Psalms 30:5 "weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."
