

Khai'rie Marcell Valderrama

October 20, 1997 - March 1, 2018

Khai'rie Marcell Valderrama was born in Portsmouth, Virginia on October 20, 1997 to Cassandra and Jose Valderrama. He received his elementary and secondary education from Chesapeake and Suffolk Public Schools. Khai, as he was affectionately known, attended Nansemond River High School in Suffolk where he was active in JROTC. He completed his senior year of high school in Texas in the loving care of his paternal aunt, Dissette Leatherwood, graduating from C.E. Ellison High School in the spring of 2016.

Khai'rie's love for his mother and siblings was a joy to behold and he shared a unique and very special bond with his nephew Jayceon. Khai'rie is also a beloved member of a close-knit extended family who have always enjoyed spending time with him as well as each other. Khai'rie was employed at Ruby Tuesday Restaurant in Suffolk, Virginia and was a valued member of the staff. He often received many compliments from customers and team members because he always provided exceptional customer service.

Khai'rie was predeceased by his father, Jose Valderrama. He leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Cassandra (McMillan) Valderrama of Suffolk; a sister, Jasmine Bowen of Newport News, VA and a brother, Devon Valderrama, also of Suffolk, VA, and a very special and beloved nephew, Jayceon Bowen (Jasmine); a maternal grandmother and grandfather, Faye and Gilbert Hurst of Portsmouth, VA and two maternal aunts, Latanya Williams of Dallas, GA. and Rachel Clayton of Lockport, IL; a paternal aunt, Dissette Leatherwood of Killeen, TX and two paternal uncles, Angel Valderrama, Jr. of Dallas, TX and Luis Valderrama of Vernon, TX.

He will be dearly missed by a great many extended family and remembered fondly by a host of dear friends.
