

Kiara M. Etheridge

January 27, 1995 - June 4, 2018

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away her journey's just begun.

Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and no years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today,
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched.

For nothing loved is ever lost, and she was loved so much.

On Monday, June 4, 2018 our Heavenly Father called my beautiful angel, mother of my grandson, sister and friend, Kiara Marie Etheridge home to her eternal rest. Kiara lived most of her life in Virginia Beach, but graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School. She was raising her son in Norfolk. My Kiara accomplished a lot in her 23 years. She worked hard at her job at SSVA which got her a supervisory positive within her first 3 months of working there, all while going back to school for nursing and maintaining her own home.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her son, Mason Isaiah Walker her loving mother Romona Etheridge and late father, Carlos Etheridge; a brother, Clifford Kea; grandparents, Robert and Marion Brown, her grandma Mary, her sons father Travon Walker; a godmother, Gwendolyn Eason, and a host of aunties, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends who loved her dearly.

I didn't know Kiara well. We worked together for a few months. In those few months i learned that she was a loving careing person inside and out. God took a percious woman that night and turned her into an angel to watch over her family and friends. I hope one day her family will be able to find peace and know that Kiara will always be watching over them to guide them in every way. She was a special woman who will be deeply missed.

“ *Even though me and Kiara argued almost everyday, she was one of the realist friends I ever had... When me and my babies had no where to go, Kiara opened her doors without hesitation and it hurts me too my soul too know I can't talk too her, I can't get on FB and see her make post back too back, I can't argue with her anymore smh... It's just not fair 💔... I loved that girl and I always will love that girl 🙏... She will remain forever in my heart
