“ To the family, I was a substitute teacher for a week at Nansemond River in 2008. I had the privilege of meeting Kiera. I remember her confident personality of knowing who she was and what she wanted to do. You never know the effect of meeting a person. My encounter with Kiera was a pleasant one. I pray for your strength of comfort. Caring on her spirit, for she is truly with the lord. Be blessed and thank you for allowing her to plant her seed to grow in others, who met her.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jackson##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Kiera was a special young lady. I was very fortunate to see Kiera each morning she came to school with a smile on her face-even days she didn't feel so good. After her class was moved downstairs Kiera still came upstairs to talk. Your daughter will be missed and we will always remember our Nansemond River Warrior.##imported-begin##S. Michele Duncan##imported-end##

“ What we'll remember most about KeeKee was this: in those last few days, seeing her entire family surrounding her bedside, we all could tell how much she was loved by her family. And then hanging in the back corner of her room was a poster, one that she'd made herself, that said "What I want people to know about me: That I love my family so much." Even at such a moment of profound sadness, there was so much love in that room that was obvious to everyone around. We wish you all the best in this difficult time.##imported-begin##Your doctors at CHKD##imported-end##
