

Kimberly Michelle Carey

September 2, 1967 - March 4, 2017

Mrs. Kimberly M. Carey was born September 2, 1967 to the late Maxcine Herring and Frankie Stewart aka Soul Ranger. She was educated in the Portsmouth Public School System. She was a devoted caregiver at the VA Hospital as well as Blessed Hands Home Health Care.

Kimberly had a heart of gold and would give her last to anybody. She was very humble, kind-hearted, loving, and had a passion for helping people.

Kimberly leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Wendell Burriss; two daughters, Niesha Barnette (Everol Barnette) and Iesha Eaton; two sons, Cedric Tony and Tyquan Cary; mother, Renee Riddick; sisters: Evelyn Lomax (Kevin), Sheila Grier (Derrick), Angela Pittman (Antwan), Latrice Robinson; two grandchildren, Trevon Eaton and Teala Barnette and a host of nieces, great nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a sister, Antionette Wynn. She is also survived by special friends, Evangelist Lisa Stith, Qushelle James, Dymund Carter. A special thanks to Priscilla Parnp, her care taker.

“ Dear family & friends you have my deepest & sincere condolences for your lost, I was shocked to learn of her passing for she will be truly missed. Kimberly and I shared a special gift that will live on in her likeness. Kim made her place in all of our hearts in her own special way and that's where she will continue to live on, so I ask of you to stay encouraged & prepair to meet her on the other side.
