“ Kim and I met at work. She had a great sense of humor, was vastly knowledgeable, and adored Lilah. I think about her often and I miss her.

“ Kim was a close friend of mine in the late 1990's when we lived in Roanoke, Va. She was a sweet, bright, sincere and motivated woman. I'm so happy to have known her. She brightened every room she entered. She will be missed by many Friends of Bill. May God bless & keep her and comfort the hearts of those she left behind. - Deborah Hardie Bare
