“ I was deeply saddened to learn of Kimble’s passing. When I first joined the Copyright Office, Kimble personally welcomed me and introduced me to the core processes, generously sharing her expertise and helping me find my footing. She possessed a wealth of institutional knowledge and was always eager to mentor others, a true steward of collaboration and support.

Kimble’s warmth, insight, and generosity left an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of working with her. May her memory continue to be a source of comfort and a lasting blessing to us all.

“ Kimble was my friend. We worked together for over 6 years and she was always funny, kind, and an amazing mind. We could, and did, talk about anything (mostly the current political climate at the time - but even that was easy with her) and I learned a lot from her. Watching her work was amazing, as she was incredibly helpful and detail oriented. This was true of work and in life. Most times people, including myself!, didn't know they needed what she provided until she did. I had no idea her leaving would be so hard on me, but I am glad that we had the opportunity to talk future and beyond this life. She was quite the inspiration and I will miss her dearly and greatly. See you later, Kimble-eeee. ~~ShellWell

“ Kimble was a valuable colleague and she will be greatly missed. I worked closely with closely when I was on a hiring panel for the first time. I had a million questions, and she was unfailingly kind and patient, and I truly appreciated her understated humor. I'm so sorry for your loss; may her memory be a blessing to all who knew and loved her.

“ Kimble David - She was very special to me at work; at any time of the day, I needed help, and Kimble was always there. In 2024, I needed help writing Position descriptions for my staff, and Kimble helped me the whole time while providing me with plenty of tips for the future. - Charlie
