

Lamar Octavious Elliott

March 30, 1991 - July 11, 2020

On Saturday, July 11, 2020, our precious son, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend, Mr. Lamar Octavious Elliott transitioned from this life to his eternal life. He was born on March 30, 1991 to the late Elvis Luster and Tonya Marie Elliott who resides in Suffolk, Virginia. He attended Suffolk Public School Systems and received his GED from Nansemond River High School. Lamar was funny, smart, and his work ethic was well-respected. He was a Master Barber at Elliott Premier Cutz and co-owner of B & E Auto Sales. He was also known for being the life of the party and his memory will live on within the hearts of those he touched. Lamar was predeceased by his maternal grandmother, Valerie Elliott. He has left to cherish his memory, his mother, Tonya Marie Elliott (special friend, Sammie White); three boys, DaShire, Khalil, and Ethan Elliott; two girls, Cari and Melody Elliott; seven siblings, Ariyah, Latonya, Shelby, and Sade Elliott, Diamonté Parrish, Leportia and Garrick Powell Jr.; two half sisters, Latrice Collins and Tasha Watson; an aunt of comfort, Sonya Elliott; three best friends, Dijon Elliott, Terry Smith, Alvin Banks and a host of nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.

“ So sorry to hear this. This family is truly one of the greatest families that I have ever come to know. They made me a member of their family, showed me love when no one else would. It hurts that they have to go through this. Please know y'all are loved and are in my prayers and know that Lamar is home and know we will all see him again!
