

Larry C. Copeland

July 11, 1957 - February 16, 2025

Larry C. Copeland, 67, was born in Norfolk County, on July 11, 1957, to the late Rufus Copeland, Jr. and Viola Copeland. He entered into eternal rest on February 16, 2025. He attended Deep Creek High School and graduated in 1975. After graduation, he enlisted in the military, where he served for many years.

Larry loved listening to his oldies music, dancing, bowling and making those around him laugh. He would hold a conversation with anyone at anytime and anywhere. He was a true blue die-hard Cowboys fan and had the opportunity to attend his first NFL game to watch them play.

He was predeceased by his wife, Jesse Copeland; his parents, Viola Copeland and Rufus Copeland, Jr.; one brother Charles Eric Copeland and one nephew, Lakee Copeland.

He leaves to cherish his memories, one son, Larry Haynes and his grandchildren: four brothers, Richard (Keisha), Joe (Mercedes), Antonio and Terry; eight sisters, Sharon, Pamela, Yetta, Dronette, Trena, Michelle, Delphia and Tracey (Eugene); a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I'm missing you Uncle Larry, I could always count on you to make me laugh, even when I wasn't in the mood. You always said you just wanted to make people laugh and have fun. And we had so much fun. Rest easy, Uncle Larry, no more pain! Love ya, Alnika

“ I will miss Larry more than anyone will ever know. He called me weekly, we laughed, joked, he would vent to me and we made plans for him to come to Kentucky in June so we could watch the Cincinnati Reds play baseball. Larry cried at times because he was depressed. Larry would come to my place in Virginia and spend the weekend. I, along with others will truly miss Larry. Until we meet again in Heaven Larry, I will love and miss you. To the Copeland family I pray for peace for you.

Love, Barbara Sutton (Larry's Auntie)
