“ When we kids playing football in the street of Washington Park. Larry was Quarterback and i went out for a long pass . He threw the football about 60 yards in the air and i caught it. He was a really good passer. That's my fondest memory of him. Tiny

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Larry Faulcon - his wife, children and grand children; his sisters and brothers; nieces and nephews; cousins. We are a large family and we a loving family. We grew up together as little children. Larry always made me smile. I will always remember our talks, dear cousin. You helped me through many projects. I will forever cherish our time together. I know that Nick feels that same. Rest well, cousin. I love you. Angela Faulcon Buckner
