“ Cuz, may God covet you soul and bring you home. For the time we've spent on earth and the things we did, were only Earthly things. Whatever we do down here it don't matter now. He's the judge and jury. These years i've loved you just like a brother, go on home now. Maybe a time will come when we will see each other again. Rest in peace Nuke. “ We were friends from the time when there were dirt roads in Twin Pine. We played hard. Laughed loud and often. We grew up and moved on, but never out of mind or thoughts. We were the last Twin Piners to finish at Crestwood. Nuke, I see you. I know your face a every age. I started missing you many years ago. Now I will miss you from now on. May the grace that GOD gives freely be with you. I promise to remember you.###imported-begin## L Jr.###imported-end##

“ Nuke,
We keep going. I see you. We played hard. We had the best times growing up. We laughed. The Stories we knew. We grew up. Everyone will remember the Twin Pine kids; the Crestwood Bombers. I will always remember NUKE. We are family. God give rest and peace to you. We keep going.###imported-begin## L Jr.###imported-end##
