

Latrice Denise Parker

September 19, 1984 - January 8, 2016

Latrice D. Parker and was called home to be with the Lord on January 2016 after a long battle with heart complications. She was born to Barbara B. Houston and Ronald A. Parker Sr. on September 18th 1984.

Latrice, known to many as "Trice" graduated from Lake Taylor High School, after high school she became employed with the Children's Hospital of the Kings Daughter's. During that time, she always had a passion for beauty. She was always seen doing hair. Latrice didn't give up there, Trice enrolled in Empire Beauty Academy and successfully completed the cosmetology program. She braided and styled hair as if it was second nature. Trice once said that she dreamed of owning her own salon and was well on her way.

Latrice was survived by six sisters; Tanazbath Parker ry A), Veronica ( ell (Bruce) (VA), Althea Brinkley (Jacksonville, FL), Ironda Owens (Keith) (Elizabeth City, NC), Danielle White (VA), Latonya Williams (Shasta) (Germantown, MD), and two brothers; Ronald A. Parker Jr. (VA), and Terron Parker (VA); and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins. Latrice was preceded in death by her twin sister Latasha Parker and her daughter Jakiyah Bessent.

Because of Trice's warm heartedness and caring spirit she will be surely missed.
