“ It is difficult to express my sadness when I heard of Trina's transition from this life. She will fondly be remembered by many. I enjoyed working with her and talking to her was always very interesting. She often talked about her mother and daughter with much love and joy. Trina's physical presence will be missed but I believe her spirit will forever be with all who loved her. Please accept my sincere condolence.

“ Our Father has definitely called an angel home. She has gotten her wings!!!! Trina was a very loving and sweet person. I don't think that I have never seen her mad but I knew that if you tried her you had trouble...lol.. I will never get to laugh with her or have her to laugh at my goofy stories again. I used to call her the "Auntie" that was never and she thought that was the funniest. She was a good person and would do anything for you if she could. She loved her daughter so much and I feel her daughter's pain. I pray that God grant the family strength through this time and we shall remember the memories that Trina left us. She was loved by so many and so many will miss her. I love you Trina Birt "my Auntie that was never"!!!!!! We will meet again.

Therefore the Lord will wait, that he may be gracious to you, and therefore He will be exalted that he may have mercy on you. For the Lord is a God of justice and blessed are those who wait for him. Latrina "Trina" as I called her, waited and answered HIS call. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Trina is smiling down on us. My prayers and sympathy to the family.

“ John 16:32b-33 "But I am not really alone because the Father is with me. I have told you this so that you will have peace by being united to Me. The world will make you suffer but be brave! I have defeated the world!"

I'm praying God's peace for you all. It is a blessing to know Trina and a privilege to be her friend. Although my heart is heavy, I'm grateful for her life. I'm comforted in the fact that because of her relationship with God, I will see her again. God bless you

*I pray the peace of God will comfort you now and forever. It is a blessing to not only know Trina but to have the privilege to call her friend. Although my heart is heavy, I'm comforted because she had a relationship with God and I'll see her again. Trust God, even if it seemingly doesn't make since. God bless you... “ I remember my friend Trina being a loving, caring, and hilarious person. She had the wisdom of an old soul. She could be very firm with you when needed giving tough love, but she never wished any ill will on anyone. I am going to miss my friend of over 30 years. I should say that Trina wasn't just my friend she was also my (sister) the love we shared was that of a sister. She will never be forgotten, I know she is in a better place, in God's Paradise.

We shared a lot over the years laughing and crying together. I am so glad that I had the honor of having her in my life. I hold a lot of memories of or time together in my heart. I will cherish those memories until we see each other again Heaven's Angel.
