

Lawrence Edward Blow Jr.

March 25, 1935 - November 23, 2018

Lawrence Edward Blow Jr., of the 1200 block of Nero Drive peacefully passed away November 23, 2018. Lawrence, affectionately known as “Sonny” was born in Portsmouth, Virginia on March 25, 1935 to the late Lawrence E. Blow Sr. and Estella Howard Blow. After attending I. C. Norcom High School, he enlisted in the United States Air Force. While serving, he met the love of his life Geree Garner Blow. Sonny retired after 26 years of service. He and his wife settled back in Portsmouth, where he would then work for the Norfolk naval Shipyard for 17 years. A lover of gold, he decided to work at his second home, The Links at Portsmouth City Park.

Sonny played golf his entire life, and we’re proud to say he was the ONLY African-American to receive over 5 witnessed hole-in-ones at City Park and Bide-A-Wee.

The best part of his life story is that Sonny knew God! It’s no secret that for a while he did attend church, but towards the later part of his life, he not only knew Christ, but he wasn’t afraid nor ashamed to spread the good news of Christ.

In addition to his parents, Sonny Blow was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Geree Garner Blow and loving sisters, Vivian B. Freeman and Mary B. Mixon. Sonny Blow leaves to continue his legacy, d devoted son, Lawrence E. Blow III of Portsmouth, Virginia; a loving daughter, Jhomon S. Moore of Dallas Texas. He also leaves his precious grandchildren, Jaelin N. Mitchell, Ashleigh S. Givens, Adrian Woolridge and David Moore. He also leaves three sisters, Ora Lee Leach of Baltimore, Maryland, Alice Joyce Pierce and Carolyn B. Watts both of Portsmouth, Virginia.
