

Lee Roy Mitchell

September 19, 1931 - January 18, 2015

Our Joy - September 19, 1931 His Victory - January 18, 2015

On the evening of January 18, 2015, God called to eternal rest our beloved Husband, father, brother, grandfather, great grandfather, uncle, cousin, in-law, neighbor and friend Lee Roy Mitchell Jr. Lee Roy was born on September 19, 1931 in Portsmouth, Virginia. He was one of three siblings and the 2nd born to the late Lee Roy and Evelyn Mitchell He was married to his devoted wife Alice C. Mitchell for 52 years.

Lee Roy was employed at Greyhound Bus Lines and retired after thirty years of service. He was a self-proclaimed carpenter, painter, and Mr. Fix It. He was one who loved spending time being surrounded by his girls and grandchildren. For him, filling the home with family and friends was a joy. During times of illness and low energy he always seemed to brighten up quickly with a call from his niece Helen. He took comfort in knowing his brother, who lead him to Christ several years ago, had moved closer and was able to visit more often. He also cherished having his sister very near to enjoy their impromptu morning biscuits and coffee.

He enjoyed music, dancing and hanging out with his friends. He looked forward to and appreciated his Thursday afternoon lunches with the guys.

He was a long standing member of Club De Porres Inc. which provided community support through many charitable events. The children receiving and opening their gifts from the surprise Santa was the event he absolutely loved.

His wit and laughter was contagious and will be missed dearly.

Lee Roy leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Alice C. Mitchell, of Portsmouth, Virginia, daughters, Joan Redd of Portsmouth, Virginia, Evelyn Mitchell-McTaw (Andre'), of Irvine California, Adrienne Coleman (Charles) of Greenville, South Carolina, sister Alethia McDonald, of Portsmouth, Virginia, Brother, Willie Mitchell (Cynthia) of Hampton, Virginia, seven grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and a host of loving , in-laws, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
