

Lenora Roberts

May 15, 1908 - May 6, 2012

Being a compassionate God of grace, mercy, love and peace, God opened up the gates of Heaven and called His child home on May 6, 2012. Sorrowfully, her family released her to the will of God and tearfully rejoiced knowing that she was with our heavenly father. Lenora was born on May 15, 1908 to the late John Whitfield and Ella Barnes Whitfield. She attended school in Robersonville, N.C.

Lenora joined St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church where she served on the Relief Usher's Ministry and attended until her health failed. She worked for Planters Manufacturing Plant in Portsmouth, Virginia for several years, and later becoming a Caregiver of five children for a U.S. Congressman for 10 years. Brother Carlton Whitfield, her nephew, provided care during her time of illness until her demise.

She leaves to cherish her memory one sister, Flossie Whitehurst, Robersonville, N.C., and a host of nieces and nephews. Lenora will be missed, but not forgotten.
