

Leonard Riddick

January 27, 1959 - January 11, 2015

Leonard Riddick (aka. Ill' Man or Frog Dog) the son of the late Ella Riddick and Willie Lee Carey, was born on January 27, 1959 in Portsmouth, Virginia. He received his education in the Portsmouth Public School System. Leon loved being around his family and friends. He especially loved being around his nieces and nephews. Leon's best day was every day. There was never a dull moment when he was in your presence. Leon had a memory like a champ and remembered everyone's birthday. Not a day passed that he didn't call someone to say Happy Birthday or just to say "Hello, this is Frog". Leon loved to cook and especially loved to sing. He knew each word but hummed it all unless the song was by Luther Vandross and then he would loudly sing the song, "Don't you remember you told me you loved me baby." Frog's phone calls and willingness to help anyone will be missed by all. Leon was predeceased by 2 brothers Leroy Whitaker and Tony Riddick and 1 sister Katina Johnson. He leaves to cherish his loving memory; a son Damion Thomas and 1 grandson Montavious Thomas of Portsmouth; 5 brothers Larry Gibson (Shirley) of Elizabeth City, NC., Melvin Riddick; Andre Riddick, Willie Riddick and Ronald Brown; 3 sisters Patricia Riddick, Erica Benison (Raymond) and Linda Riddick all of Portsmouth; best Friends Anthony Riddick ("Shug") and Norman Jr.; a dear special friend and mother of his son Nita Thomas; a "special daughter" Monique Thomas and also a host of uncles, aunts, nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.
