“ My name is Dwight Bridgett. I started a relationship with the Coleman family as a Yellow Cab driver. We quickly became like family. Leonia was a regular fare to and from her job at Walmart on Hampton. I'll always remember our conversations and her wit. She and her Mother are greatly missed and will NEVER be forgotten.
AMEN

“ *Leonia or more affectionately - 'Leonee',
Troy and I already miss you:
The times we spent on the phone laughing about something as silly as "old school candy" and the likes.
The times we spent talking about the NY Giants football team. That team is just bad, but we were still fans.
Finally, for me how you never let me forget the time that you visited Georgia and I took you to the bus station and ended up in Alabama before I made it back home - LOL!*

*Rest easy Cousin
We love you!
Troy & Sandra Daniel*

*To her immediate family - William, Isa, Mr. Coleman and all others.
May God be your strength during this time of sorrow and loss.*
