

Leroy Hamilton Sr.

December 16, 1948 - June 18, 2014

Leroy Hamilton, Sr., a Connecticut native, passed peacefully in Norfolk on June 18, 2014. Born on December 16, 1948, in Mullins, South Carolina, he was one of three children. He was married to the late Gloria I. Hamilton. He retired from the United States Army after 27 years of service.

Leroy was devoted to his family, whom he loved and cherished. Especially dear to him also were his Army and Prince Hall Freemasonry friends, with whom he had built enduring friendships.

His outgoing personality and his directness endeared Leroy to everyone he met. To him, there were no strangers. He encircled each person in an embrace of honesty and laughter. He was blessed with a multitude of gifts, and, in turn, he was a blessing to others. Surely, he will be remembered and cherished by all.

Celebrating his life are three sons, Leroy Hamilton, Jr. (Erica) of Chesapeake, Alvin J. Hamilton of Chesapeake, and Corinthian S. Hamilton of Connecticut; four grandchildren, Dyniece C. Hamilton, Alvin J. Hamilton, II, Leroy Hamilton, III, and Erin N. Hamilton; a brother, Henry A. Hamilton (Eleanor); a sister, Shirley Smith; a surrogate daughter, Catherine Downing; two sisters-in-law, Margie Downing and Alma J. Nelson; a brother-in-law, Johnnie Downing, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.

The family especially thanks Henry A. Hamilton for his devotion and commitment to his brother. Henry not only visited Leroy consistently but also attended to a variety of needs related to the maintenance of Leroy's home and personal care while Leroy was in Connecticut. The family also thanks other relatives and friends as well as the caregivers at Harbour Pointe Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center.
