

Leroy Stevenson, Jr.

October 1, 1953 - May 20, 2024

Leroy Stevenson Jr., aged 70, passed away peacefully on May 20, 2024. He was a beloved father, grandfather, brother, and friend, known for his humor.

Leroy dedicated his career to NNSY, where he worked diligently until his retirement. His colleagues remember him not only for his expertise, but also for the joy he brought to the workplace with his sharp wit and infectious laughter.

In his leisure time, Leroy enjoyed watching anime, playing chess, and fishing. He was also a decent cook and enjoyed teaching and cooking with his grandchildren in his later years.

Leroy's humor was a defining trait; he had an uncanny ability to make everyone around him smile and laugh. His stories, jokes, and lighthearted spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

He is survived by his son, Leroy Stevenson II; daughter, Melanie Davis; sister, Stephanie Stevenson; his two granddaughters, Diamond and Diamoni Davis, and grandson, Reginald Davis Jr., all of whom will forever cherish the memories and lessons he imparted. Though he has left this world, Leroy Stevenson Jr.'s legacy of love, laughter, and wisdom will live on in the hearts of those who had the honor of knowing him.

Rest in peace, Leroy. You will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

“ Leroy was one of the smartest guys in the ICN Class of 1971. He was nonchalant 😊 about his analytical mind, but I marvel at how hard some of us took notes and studied for test, and Leroy would just sit in class “half sleep” and A’s the rest. Leroy also introduced me to my now husband of 43 years. RIP classmate 🙏

I am saddened to hear about the passing of Leroy. He was more than just a best friend; he was a true brother to me. He served as best man at my wedding. I will always cherish fond memories of our many adventures. May he rest in peace, and may God bring comfort and peace to his family and all who loved him.
