“ I am sorry I did not get up to share my memories of Les during his service. I was just too upset and nobody would have been able to understand me because of the crying. I have so many fond memories of working with him and he was one of the funniest people I have ever met. Oh, the stories/inside jokes I could have shared about our time working together. I wish I had the strength to do it. Some of the best days I've had during my career were with him. I am so glad I knew him and I was able to call him my friend. He will be deeply missed.
