“ Hello Mother Gatling, Joyce and family. I am sending you all my love from Atlanta. I cannot be with you at this time in person, but my prayers are sent to each of you. I am asking for strength, peace, and comfort as you move through this taxing time of your life. Even though you have been through life transitions before I know it does not get easier. Praise God you know they God will get you through even though your strength might be depleted. Do what you know to do best that is to pray, lean on one another and keep ministering with love.

“ I am sorry for your loss. Leslie was a nice person. I used to work with him a National Linen.
