

Levon Bridgers

June 7, 1950 - March 4, 2019

LEVON "Ricky" BRIDGERS departed his earthly body on March 4, 2019. Ricky was the third born to the late Bernard, Sr. and Annie Spellman Bridgers in Princess Anne County, Virginia. During his youth, Ricky was affectionately called "Gee Gee" by family and friends in the SeaTack area of Virginia Beach.

Ricky married the love of his life, Sadie Winfield, August 3, 2007. Together they share three daughters and five grandchildren.

Ricky served as Private First Class in the United States Marine Corps, before being honorably discharge in 1973. In later years, Ricky worked and retired from Chesapeake Public School System after ten years of dedicated service.

Ricky was an active member at Better Life Church, and enjoyed inspiring others with scripture and his personal testimony. Ricky was known to love good music, especially quartet style singing.

Ricky loved people, most importantly Ricky loved his family.

Ricky was preceded in death by his parents, Bernard Bridgers, Sr. and Annie Spellman Bridgers; and parents in-law, Deacon Marion Wilson and Mother Ida Wilson. Left to cherish his memory are siblings, Joanne B. Jones, Bernard Bridgers, Jr., Concesvella B. Wilson, Bernice B. Vinson (Curtis), Angela B.

Morris (George), Tyrone Bridgers (Kathy), Christopher Bridgers, Anthony Bridgers, John Bridgers (Dorothy) and Andre Bridgers; children, LaTonya Bridgers, TaKedra Smith (Charles) and Terri Marshall; grandchildren, Aaliyah Holt, Darion Bridgers, Christian Smith, Jeremy Marshall and Taylor Marshall. Also left to cherish his memory, best friend, Stanley Satterfield, in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To the entire family of Bridge. I have some great memories of Bridge. I recall living next door to him. He was an amazing Man. To know him was to love him just like a big brother. Well I know he's happy pain free and flying freely with the Angels. To his beautiful wife, God don't make any mistakes. He's watching over you and the family. God bless his wife, children and siblings.
