

Lillian Smith Drake

April 1, 1939 - September 12, 2018

On Monday, September 24, 2018 our husband, father, son, brother, grandson, uncle, and friend, James Corey Brown departed this life. James was born on October 15, 1977 to James Oscar Hooper, Jr. and Gloria Jean Robinson in Oceanside, California. He was the youngest of three children. In 1985, the family moved to Portsmouth, Virginia and was educated in the Portsmouth School System. He played football for Churchland High and also for Churchland Recreation as a Steeler.

Jamie worked at several warehouse jobs in the area including Nash Finch where he made many friends. He is a die-hard Raiders fan and he loved riding his motorcycle. Jamie was known for his cool demeanor his humor and his love for his family.

In May 2008, James married KaChelle Hill and became a father to her two sons, Elijah and Isaac. He loved KaChelle and her son's very dearly. Jamie returned to school to get his GED then he continued his education and received his Associates and Bachelor's degree. In February 2018, he began working for DAMCO as a supervisor. Jamie enjoyed his job and his peers. His supervisors felt he was a very hard worker and went above and beyond.

Jamie leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Gloria Robinson and Father, James Oscar Hooper Jr.; two sisters, Michale and Marsha; his wife, KaChelle and sons, Elijah and Isaac; grandmother, Emma Hooper; two nephews, Anthony and Delvon; two nieces, Johnetta and Marchelle; great-niece, lil homie Johnae; six aunts, two uncles, many cousins from both sides of his family and his closest friends, George, Corey, and all his friends that loved him dearly.
