

Linda Ann Nichols

March 11, 1950 - November 23, 2022

Linda A. Nichols was born to Juanita Jones and Quincy Williams on March 11, 1950 in Southampton County, Virginia. She attended Southampton Public Schools.

Linda joined Bryant Baptist Church in Courtland, Virginia at an early age. Linda and Willie were married for 55 years. After being married to William Nichols she joined Ebenezer Baptist Church when Bishop Gomillion was pastor. She was named the Mother of the church. She was a faithful member until her health begin to declined.

To her union with Willie, three children were born Nichelle (Charles), Terrance and Shanita (Douglas) and five grandchildren; Albre, Shavonte, Terrell, Charnise and Christian and great grandchildren: Albre, Jr. and Kahlia. She loved being with her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Even during her sickness when her grandchildren and great grandchildren came by her bedside she would smile.

Linda wasn't a singer but she knew singing and learned her singing from Willie. She used to say, "William, you hear that? They can't do it like you." Linda was loved by her family, friends, and church family. She will be dearly missed. William already miss her from organizing his weekly medicine. Now he has to do it one by one, bottle by bottle (Lots of Laughs).
