“ Memory....When Lonnie returned home from Vietnam we had a big welcome home celebration with banners and everything. I was so proud it felt like I had just come home from Vietnam. He was basically the reason why I volunteered to serve.

“ I took a road trip with my Uncle Lonnie to MD and he let me sing my heart out the whole way only to ask me only one time, Who was that singer? I responded, Corrine Bailey Ray. He said, Oh, I like that! Then let me sing the rest of the way. He never asked to change the channel. He never let me know he had enough of my singing. He never slept to drown out the tunes. He never complained about my driving. He just let things be and I loved that about my Uncle Lonnie. Now, you are with your sister and brothers sharing all the good times and watching over us. Uncle Lonnie.
