

Lloyd Quincy Bellard

February 5, 1966 - January 21, 2019

Please don't sing sad songs for me; forget your grief and fears,
For I am in a place away from pain and tears
I am far away from hunger, and hurt and want and pride,
I have a place in heaven, with a master at my side.
My life on Earth was very good, as Earthly lives can go,
But praise is so much more than anyone can know....
My heart is filled with happiness and sweet rejoicing too,
To talk with God is perfect peace, A joy forever new.

Lloyd Quincy Bellard was born February 5, 1966 to Johnny and Marrita Bellard in Norfolk, Virginia. He was a graduate of Deep Creek High School, where he was a star basketball player and often referred to as "World B Free." Upon graduating high school, Lloyd joined the Army where he proudly served his country.

His love of travel led him to California, where he got to see the Golden Gate Bridge and the beautiful Redwood National Forrest.

You could always count on a big smile and hug from "the gentle giant." Lloyd had a big heart and his laugh was contagious! He was always mild mannered and concerned about others. Reminding everyone he came in contact with to eat right and pay attention to their health.

Sports was his favorite pastime, he was a Philadelphia Eagles fan for life! He loved good music, being around family and playing basketball. Besides his passion for sports, he was known for dressing well and being charismatic. No matter the situation he was in, Lloyd made sure his gear was on point!

There were times when Lloyd fell upon hardships and had struggles, but with his faith and God's grace he fought his way through to overcome his strife's.

On Monday, January 21, 2019, Lloyd departed this life at VCU medical center (MCV) in Richmond, Virginia.

Lloyd is survived by his mother and father, Johnny and Marrita Bellard of Chesapeake; two brothers Chris Bellard (paulette) of Richmond, Ronald Bellard (Keitra) of Charlotte, Two nieces and one nephew, Skylar, Nasya and Josh. three Aunts Brenda Smith of Norfolk, Barbara Brower (Eugene), Linda Brown (Joseph) all of Chesapeake, a host of cousins and many friends.
