May the Lord bless you and keep you. I meant to add to earlier post my other daughter in names of the family and our condolences from the Glover Family...Melissa Glover name was accidentally left off from South Carolina and last saw everyone when Lonnie's mom (our Aunt Helen's 80th) birthday party and came for her funeral. Sorry we were unable to make it there this time but we are praying for the family for continued strength day by day and be encouraged. God will never leave nor forsake us. Blessings to all. “ You will be missed here on earth brother-in-law but you're safe in the arms of Jesus now. Take your rest.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

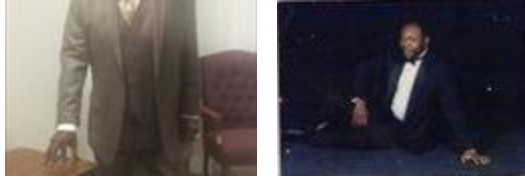

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

“ People come in your life for a Reason, a Season and a Lifetime. Yesterday, I lost a special work colleague, friend and brother who gave me godly wisdom, spiritual guidance, and laughter. He helped me see the brighter side when things seemed to go wrong and encourage me to be the best me. No more pain and suffering. I know you are in a better place.
My prayers and condolences go out to the family. May you find comfort, joy and strength knowing that Lonnie is resting peacefully in the Arms of the Lord. Rest easy, Lonnie!
