“ The people of St. John's Episcopal Church in Olde Towne, Portsmouth remember with fondness your loved one who cared for our youngest children for years. Please know that prayers were offered on her behalf at our altar. May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

“ THINGS GET BETTER WITH TIME

Remove the blindfold so I can see clearly without anyone or anything abusing me.

So that I may walk straight , no cane, no crutch but continuing to hold on.

To someone or something which makes me feel whole again because right now

I'm only half of what you made me or what I claim to be or claim not to be.

Whatever it is belongs to all of us,

Minus this pain, hurt and disscust

Which now is an illusion projected in my mind

Until on Day I realize

This too shall pass. Rest In Peace

Your nephew Kelvin Hill
