“ Im sitting here today looking at your picture, its still doesnt seem real. I can still feel your presence just looking at your face in this picture. I wish we would have had more time together. I know you were ready to be free, and reunite with Granny. I miss the both of you so much. I wish I could call you right now so you can tell me how to make your gravy. I never really mastered it, I could never get that flour taste to go away. I miss you Aunt Gina! I love you to pieces !

“ I remember Gina from KP we had so much fun growing up she was so loving and always had kind words to say to you. The last memory of Gina was at the Waterfront we talked and laughed and brought back the good old days. RIP my prayers are with the family. Since I live in Texas now I asked MeeMee to go to the funeral home to show my respect.
