

Lula Arletha Wilson

October 27, 1944 - June 16, 2020

On Tuesday, June 16, 2020, God called His child, Lula A. Wilson (Lu) to return home to live in eternity. Lu was born to Boston and Cora Richardson on October 27, 1944 in Rich Square, North Carolina.

She attended I.C. Norcom High School. While living in Virginia, she met her loving husband of fifty years, William T. Wilson.

Lu and Bill shared four loving children. She was an outstanding homemaker who worked various jobs until she found her passion in Floral designing.

Lu was very passionate about giving back to her community, whether it was providing Vacation Bible School for neighborhood kids, catering for the church or assisting the sick and shut in.

Lula loved her community and her family to whom she dedicated her life.

Family members who are missing her dearly and live to share her memory are her children; one son, Timothy J. Wilson; three daughters, Janette S. Wilson (Jonathan T. Edwards), Rosalinde L. Newby (Anthony Newby), and Deborah A. Barnes; one sister, Gloria E. Greene; fourteen grandchildren, Christina D. Robinson, Christopher T. Gatling, Natalie D. Willis, Whitney R. Britt, Jasmine S. Bruton, Franklin D. Bruton III, Jayla S. Wilson, Andrea D. Wilson, Timothy J.

Wilson Jr., Mya J. Wilson, William T. Wilson II, Anthony W. Barnes III, Dakota A. Barnes, and Xavier A. Barnes; six great-grandchildren, Jada N. Robinson, Eugene A. Robinson Jr., Christopher C. Gatling, Trinity D. Willis, Christopher S. Williams Jr., and Aleeya I.L. Bruton; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ I am very sorry you are living this sad moment. A message of hope I want to share with you is that found in the Bible in the book of Acts, chapter 24, verse 15: ".....there is going to be a resurrection....." A promise from God, the only one that can fulfill them. Ms. Lula will be able to come back to life for the joy of all you.

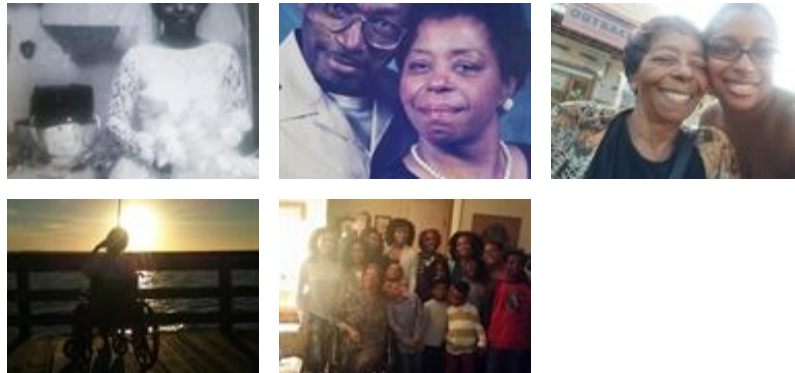

Sincerely
Sanny Abre
