Luther R. Weaver affectionately known as “Big Luke”, 57, was called home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, October 9, 2012. He was born August 8, 1955 in Greenwood, SC to the late Luther R. May the Lord continue to comfort each of you in the days and weeks ahead, as you embark onto your journey. 'Big Luke', will surely be missed, he was a wonderful person. Who touched so many lives in a positive way and was only a stranger once the first day you crossed his path afterwards he was a friend, mentor, a true leader.
Maggie, words cannot be said other than my heart truly aches for you. Remember if you need any of us current and former NMCP ER family, we are here for you,
Love

“ Maggie,

We were saddened to hear of the passing of Bro. Luther. He was such an inspiration to all who knew him. We loved seeing you both as we shopped in our local Walmart, and my husband loved talking to him about the things of God when they worked at NNSY together. He was so concerned about others' well-being. That is rare in today's society. It was because of his love for God that he did so. Bro. Luther's purpose of touching lives and winning the lost to Christ has had a great impact on the Body of Christ in this state and worldwide. So many will remember how he presented Christ in a real and personal way.

May God's peace and serenity surround you and your loved ones today. Know that we will be continually praying for you always. We love you!

“ Mr. Weaver touched my life as an apprentice at NNSY he was so caring and attentive to all of our needs apprentices and mechanics alike. He always checked on how we were doing, if we needed any help of any sort..half the time he would just take the tools out of your hand and just start to help/show you and end up doing it for you wether you liked it or not. You would basically have to pry the stuff out of his hand. I am so glad I got to work with this man I really learned alot from him. I also got to get to know him on a personal level, he started learning to go horseback riding which he would share with me because he knew I liked to ride horses also. It brought me great joy to see the light in his eyes when he would tell me about his experiences. I will always remember him calling me Mrs. Pattie no matter how many times I corrected him on my name pronounciation. I will forever be Mrs. Pattie to him and I am pround to be called that. I will truly miss this man at NNSY and my life. RIP Mr. Weaver
