

Malcolm Jamal Hoskins

June 30, 1992 - June 4, 2018

MALCOLM JAMAL HOSKINS, the son of Robert H. Hoskins, Jr. and Miriam Clanton, was born on June 30, 1992 in the city of Norfolk, Virginia. Blessed with a smile of comfort, he was rushed from life to death on June 4, 2018. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Robert H. Hoskins Sr., grandmothers, Susanna Hoskins and Gwendolyn Smith, and great-grandmothers, Merna Hoskins and Dorothy Butler.

Malcolm was a dreamer - he had dreams of a better day for himself and his brothers. He graduated from Green Run High School and attended Tidewater Community College. As a young child he played the trombone in elementary school and community baseball for Charles Peete Little League, with his cousin James Grange, Jr., coach for the Dodgers. Later in life, he pursued his love for cars as he worked as a mechanic for All About Auto Service, Virginia Beach, VA.

Malcolm was unique - he said little, but when he did speak it usually was with a shy smile, a joke and laughter. Everyone who knew him described him as a "Good Kid." His greatest joy was spending time with his family, especially his niece Aniyah.

Malcolm leaves to cherish his loving memory his father, Robert H. Hoskins, Jr. and mother, Miriam Clanton; sister, Angel Doss (Ia'von); brothers - Kareem

Hoskins (twin brother), Eric Hoskins, Maurice Clanton (Kiara) and Robert Artis; grandfather, David Cody; uncle, David Clanton; aunts, Kim Moore and Kathy Nixon (Carlos); cousin, Anthony Hoskins; nieces, Tynasia, Tyshaun, Aniyah and Lauren; nephews, Michael and Tyshaun; special friend, Ciara Hayes and a host of relatives and friends.

Malcolm will be greatly missed by his loved ones and friends.
