

Malendia Bell Williams Clark

May 13, 1927 - March 30, 2023

Malendia Bell Williams Clark, affectionately known as “Lend” or “Linda Bell” to family and friends, was called home to be with the Lord on Thursday, March 30, 2023.

She was born on May 13, 1927 to Rosa and Elijah Williams in Macon, North Carolina and educated in the North Carolina Public School System. Malendia graduated valedictorian of her high school class and received a scholarship to Shaw University. Although she did not pursue her college degree, she did pursue a nursing career, becoming a licensed practical nurse (LPN) working in the operating room of Maryview Hospital for more than 30 years.

Malendia was married to the late Andrew J. Clark for more than 64 years and to this union they had six children: Vincent, Beverly, Deborah, Latiya, Anthony and Vernessa.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was predeceased by her sisters, brothers and a grandson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of relatives.

“ Sister Beverly Epps and Family,

I extend my sincere sympathy to you and your family as you embark upon this period of transition. I encourage you to cherish the pleasant memories of your mother, Mrs. Clark, and reflect on the joyous times. Allow God to comfort and keep you on today and in days to come. Keep the faith and watch God bring you through. May the Lord bring you comfort and joy; even in the midst of sadness.

With deep sympathy,
