

Mamie Lee Boswell

September 21, 1930 - December 11, 2017

On Monday December 11, 2017 Mamie Lee Ruffin-Boswell 87, entered her heavenly home after a battle with cancer. Her devotion to her family and firm belief in God supported her in her struggle and ultimately gave her peace.

Mamie was born to the late Walter and Eliza Ruffin on September 21, 1930, in Portsmouth, VA. She was a member of Ransom for Soul Church in Portsmouth, VA. She was full of life and always made people laugh saying silly things all the time. She loved being around her family especially her children and grandchildren. Don't get it wrong she would speak her mind if needed and still love you at the same time. You could catch her on any day watching her favorite tv show "Family Feud" or doing her puzzle book. She loved to cook especially on holidays with family. She specialized in Rice Pudding and Biscuits and would share with world.

Mamie Lee Boswell was predeceased by her husband Nathaniel Farmer, three sons George Farmer, Lawrence Farmer(Paula) and Ocie Farmer (Special Friend Joann). She leaves to cherish her memories her six daughters Janice Burnett (Predeceased Robert), Eunice Farmer, Alice Farmer, Betty Finlayson, Anne Nelson, and Diane Baker. Granddaughter/Caregiver Shanika Farmer, Multiple Grandchildren with the 1st being Gregory Grant, 50 Great-Grandchildren, and 11 Great-Great Grandchildren. A host of nieces & nephews. Mamie will truly be missed by her family and friends.
