

Mamie Futrell

February 28, 1937 - February 12, 2019

Mamie Emma Futrell transitioned to her heavenly home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, February 12, 2019. Sister Futrell, was born to the late Hardy and Ellen Lewis, February 28, 1937. She was educated in the North Carolina School System. Sister Mamie was a loving and devoted wife and mother.

Sister Mamie enjoyed spending time with her family; she was well known for baking pastries, holiday fruit cakes, banana cakes and pies; and her sewing skills earned her the title Seamstress. Her love for flowers and plants will be missed. She had green thumbs and her house and yard overflowed with flowers.

Sister Futrell was preceded in death by her parents Hardy and Ellen Lewis; one son Edward L. Futrell, Jr.; four sisters: Mary Jane Askew, Mollie Parker, Hattie Downing and Dorothy Singletary; and one brother Benjamin Lewis.

Mamie E. Futrell leaves to cherish her memory her husband of sixty-one years Edward L. Futrell, Sr.; a daughter Anita Washington (Michael) of Portsmouth, VA; Three sisters Ellen Terry of DC, Fannie Brown of DE, Essie Sykes (Sam) of NC, one brother David Lewis (Georgia) of NC; grandchildren Cheryle Macon (Zakee) of Richmond, VA; Darryl Futrell, Valerie Washington of Brooklyn, NY; Michael Washington, Jr; Michelle Washington of Upstate New York, thirteen great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews; and many friends.

She was AMAZING !! 😊 I remember her working me so very, very, hard planting her flowers in the yard 😊 We had a good time. She'll be greatly missed. It's like losing a 2nd mother. Gone but NEVER forgotten 😞 I'll always have those great memories.
